Health Savings Accounts (HSAs)

If you participate in the HDHP, Bombardier will deposit tax-free money into your HSA that you can use to pay for eligible health care expenses. This amount is prorated based on the date you elect the HSA.

You can contribute to your account through payroll deductions. For 2019, the maximum contribution amounts are $3,500 for Employee Only coverage and $7,000 for Family coverage. (These amounts do not include catch-up contributions, if you are eligible.)

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs)

Health Care FSA

You can contribute up to $2,700 pre-tax each year through payroll deductions to help pay for out-of-pocket health care expenses. (You may not enroll in the Health Care FSA if you enroll in the HDHP.)

Dependent Care FSA

You can contribute up to $5,000 pre-tax each year to reimburse yourself for eligible dependent care expenses.

Note: Most benefits start on the 76th day of your employment. Eligibility for the 401(k) Plan begins on the first day of the month following 75 days from your date of hire.

Legal Notice: This is only a high-level summary of benefits offered to non-represented employees at Bombardier Aerospace. It does not provide a detailed explanation of each plan. No plan maintained by Bombardier is intended to create any contractual right of employment, and nothing contained therein shall be construed as a guarantee of time or for any specific type of work. Bombardier reserves all rights to make changes at any time in the benefits, costs and other provisions relative to any benefit plan, including, but not limited to, retiree medical provisions. Those changes could include the complete termination of benefits for all individuals or certain groups of individuals. Except in the case of certain pension benefits, no employee, spouse or dependent will acquire any vested (non-forfeitable) right to have benefits, costs or other provisions of any plan remain unmodified or in effect.
