Health Savings Accounts (HSAs)

If you participate in the HDHP, Bombardier will deposit tax-free money into your HSA that you can use to pay for eligible health care expenses. This amount is prorated based on the date you elect the HSA.

You can contribute to your account through payroll deductions. For 2022, the maximum contribution amounts are $3,650 for Employee Only coverage and $7,300 for Family coverage. If you are age 55 or older, you can contribute an additional $1,000 per year to your HSA.

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs)

Health Care FSA

You can contribute up to $2,850 pre-tax each year through payroll deductions to help pay for out-of-pocket health care expenses. (You may not enroll in the Health Care FSA if you enroll in the HDHP.)

Dependent Care FSA

You can contribute up to $5,000 pre-tax each year to reimburse yourself for eligible dependent care expenses.

Note: Most benefits start on the first day of the month following your date of hire, provided you complete your enrollment within 30 days of hire. Eligibility for the 401(k) Plan begins on the first of the month following one month of service.

Legal Notice: This is only a high-level summary of benefits offered to non-represented employees at Bombardier Aerospace. It does not provide a detailed explanation of each plan. No plan maintained by Bombardier is intended to create any contractual right of employment, and nothing contained therein shall be construed as a guarantee of time or for any specific type of work. Bombardier reserves all rights to make changes at any time in the benefits, costs and other provisions relative to any benefit plan, including, but not limited to, retiree medical provisions. Those changes could include the complete termination of benefits for all individuals or certain groups of individuals. Except in the case of certain pension benefits, no employee, spouse or dependent will acquire any vested (non-forfeitable) right to have benefits, costs or other provisions of any plan remain unmodified or in effect.
